

Addendum to City Of Langley Application for Fundraising

To City Council of the City of Langley,

Please see this additional information as requested in the application form.

Below is our requested time frames of fundraising in the area.

Name of Registered Charity	Charitable Registration Number	Duration of Canvass	Purpose of Proceeds/Name of Campaign
Plan International Canada	11892 8993 RR0001	4 weeks per calendar year	Because I Am A Girl General Fund
Canadian National Institute for the Blind	11921 9459 RR0003	4 weeks per calendar year	GuideDogs Fund
Unicef Canada	12268 0572 RR0001	4 weeks per calendar year	Unicef Canada General Fund
Save the Children Canada	10795 8621 RR0001	4 weeks per calendar year	Save the Children Canada General Fund
Children Believe Canada	10691 8543 RR0001	4 weeks per calendar year	Both General Fund and Child Sponsorship

Additional notes regarding the above:

- We are very particular with our fundraising teams with regards to overlapping areas - we remind them often not to return to areas too often and track their territory coverage by FSA.
- Although we are a for-profit organization, it is important for us to note that we do not involve commission sales in any way, all donor information and any funds raised are sent directly to the registered charities, and we provide canvassers for registered charities

Below is also some information on how these organizations benefit the community and worldwide.

Plan International Canada

Plan International's work to promote child rights and lift millions of children out of poverty is based around eight core areas: EDUCATION, HEALTH, WATER AND SANITATION, PROTECTION, ECONOMIC SECURITY, EMERGENCIES, CHILD PARTICIPATION SEXUAL HEALTH INCLUDING HIV

Because I am a girl program:

Every day, millions of girls around the world are denied their basic human rights – simply because they're girls. Because I am a Girl is Plan International's global initiative that supports the youth-led movement for girls' rights and gender equality. Plan works with all community members and leaders, including men and boys, to help girls learn, lead, decide and thrive - because empowering girls is essential to achieving gender equality.

Canadian National Institute for the Blind

CNIB operates community-based services for Canadians who are blind or partially sighted. This includes assistance in returning to school, advice on travelling, and emotional support. These services are delivered either at a local CNIB office, within the community, over the phone, online, or in an individual's home. It also offers advocacy support for resources focusing on social issues, such as concessions, housing, finances, and leisure pursuits. Self-help groups are facilitated by staff and volunteers who may be blind or partially sighted.

Unicef Canada

UNICEF is a non-profit humanitarian organization focusing on saving children's lives around the globe
Funds go to: Child development and education, Stopping child exploitation, Protecting children with HIV and AIDS, Child advocacy, Child survival, Child health

Save the Children Canada

Save the Children International is the world's leading independent organization for children. Save the Children strives to give children an environment in which their human rights and needs are respected and protected, so they can realize their fullest potential. To achieve this, their programs focus on child rights and protection, health and nutrition, clean water, education, sustainable livelihoods, emergency relief and survival.

Children Believe Canada

Children Believe works to help support children around the world overcome barriers that otherwise prevent them from gaining an education and achieving their dreams. General funds go to emergency situations i.e. helping a girl out of child marriage, providing medical treatment, stocking a medical centre with supplies.