

EXPLANATORY MEMO

2023 PERMISSIVE PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION BYLAW No. 3226

Under the Community Charter, Council has the ability to pass bylaws which exempt certain properties from property taxes.

The bylaw presented continues all exemptions included in the 2023 Permissive Property Tax Exemption Bylaw for a 1 year period.

Properties owned or occupied by the City

Community Police Office

The City of Langley Community Police Office is leased from a private company. To reduce the operating cost of the space, the City was able to exempt our portion of the building since we are the principal occupant. This exemption has been in place since 2007.

Non-profit occupiers of City land

The BC Assessment Authority considers any municipal owned land which is leased to a second party to be taxable. Under Section 224 of the Community Charter the City has the authority to provide a permissive exemption to these properties if they are occupied by a Non-profit Agency. In 2022, these exemptions reduced the City's portion of taxation revenue by $92,819, which is 0.3% of the annual property taxes.

1. Langley Seniors Resource Society. The senior's centre is constructed on land leased from the City. The land and improvements became taxable in 1996 triggered by the registration of the lease. It was not the intent of the lease to change the taxable status of the facility; therefore, City Council approved a permissive exemption for the 1996 tax year, and has done so since.
2. Langley Stepping Stones Rehabilitative Society. In 1995, the Stepping Stones Society constructed a new facility on land leased to them by the City. When the lease was registered at the Land Titles Office the property reverted to a taxable status for the year 1996. City Council approved a permissive exemption for the 1996 tax year, and has done so since.
3. A portion of City Park owned by the City and leased to the Langley Community Music School Society (4809 207th Street). The property became taxable after the BC Assessment Authority undertook a review of non-municipal use of City owned land in 1997. City Council first approved a permissive exemption for the 1998 tax year.

4. Outdoor Langley Lawn Bowling Club. This is the Club's outdoor facility adjacent to Douglas Park (20471 54th Ave). The property became taxable after the BC Assessment Authority undertook a review of non-municipal use of City owned land in 1997. City Council first approved a permissive exemption for the 1998 tax year.
5. Langley Community Services Society which leases the City owned land at 5339 207th Street. The property became taxable after the BC Assessment Authority undertook a review of non-municipal use of City owned land in 1997. City Council first approved a permissive exemption for the 1998 tax year.
6. The Governing Council of the Salvation Army has constructed a shelter at 5787 Langley Bypass on land leased from the City of Langley. To reduce the operating costs of the new facility the City passed a permissive exemption for this property which commenced in 2009. In 2011 this property was assessed as a supportive living facility and the majority of the property assessment was reduced to $2 similar to other designated facilities within the City. The entire property is being included in the bylaw, to ensure its exemption status is continued if the property class was to change.

Other existing Permissive Exemptions

There are 12 other properties within the City that currently have permissive exemptions. The properties are all non-profit and fall within our current Tax Exemption Policy. In 2021, these exemptions reduced the City's portion of taxation revenue by $117,104, which is 0.37% of the annual property taxes.

1. Global School Society, a non-profit society which operates a Montessori school. Although this property receives a partial statutory exemption for the building and the land directly beneath it, the City has historically provided a permissive exemption for the remaining property, similar to churches. This exemption has been in place since 2001.
2. Langley Care Society. In 2005, the City was informed by BC Assessment they would be revoking a partial property tax exemption from the Langley Lodge located at 5451 204 St. The property had been receiving the partial exemption since 1974, the year following its opening. The City granted a permissive exemption which took effect in 2006 to continue the tax exemption on the property. During 2009 this society expanded its facility and requested an extension of the permissive exemption to cover the newly constructed facility. In 2010, the City continued the same exemption based on the original & new building value using the historical percentage of 18% for land and 93% for the buildings.
3. Langley Hospice Society purchased a property located at 20660 48 Ave in the fall of 2009. In the fall of 2010 City Council approved a permissive exemption which has been in place since.
4. Inclusion Langley Society approached the City in 2010 requesting permissive exemptions for 8 properties owned by the association used to support adults with developmental disabilities and children with special needs. In the fall of 2010 City Council approved a permissive exemption which has been in place since.
5. Langley Memorial Hospital Auxiliary (20560 Fraser Hwy) – The Langley Memorial Hospital Auxiliary purchased the property in December 2014 and operates Penny Pinchers at this location. A small portion of one of the buildings is being leased to a private company and that portion would be not included in a permissive exemption if it was to be granted. City Council denied a similar request from the Langley Memorial Hospital Auxiliary for the 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, and 2020 taxation years.
6. Langley Food Bank (5768 203 ST) The Langley Food Bank has been at this location for over 30 years. City Council denied a similar request from the Langley Food Bank in prior years.
7. Inclusion Langley Society (20689 Fraser Hwy, Ground Floor) The Inclusion Langley Society occupies three office space units in the Heritage

Centre on Fraser Hwy. This increases the delivery of some of their vital services. City Council denied a similar request from the Inclusion Langley Society in prior years.

8. Encompass Support Services Society (20616 Eastleigh Cres) The Encompass Support Services Society will offer a variety of services for youth 12-24 years of age including physical health, mental health, substance use support, peer support, and social services.

*Permissive Exemption Other includes taxes from other governments such as Translink, School Taxes, etc.

No new applications for 2023 were received. The bylaw has been drafted as the status quo, extending all existing permissive exemptions for an additional 1 year period. This is recommended by staff considering the current pressures on the financial resources of the City.
