Subject: follow up re: Council submission to recognize Amyloidosis Awareness Month in March

Hello,

I am a 22 (1) [REDACTED] volunteer with the Canadian Amyloidosis Support Network (CASN), a federally registered non-profit organization that supports patients and families impacted by amyloidosis.

You can find out more about amyloidosis at our website amyloidosisanada.org or at our Facebook page when you complete a search for Canadian Amyloidosis Support Network Facebook.

Each year, March is recognized as Amyloidosis Awareness Month.

Kind regards,

Jennifer Enright
